Virgin Islands Delegation at 68th Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference

Release Date: 9 October, 2025

The House of Assembly of the Virgin Islands is in attendance at the 68th Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference, taking place from October 5th to 12th, 2025, in Barbados. The delegation is led by the Speaker of the House of Assembly, Honourable Corine George-Masicote, along with other distinguished members and staff.

Representing the Virgin Islands are the Deputy Speaker, Honourable Dr. Karl Dawson, Honourable Melvin Turnbull, and Honourable Marlon Penn, to include observer from the office of the House of Assembly Ms. Shakiara Cupid The conference brings together parliamentarians from across the Commonwealth to exchange ideas, promote democratic governance, and foster collaboration on shared challenges.

The House of Assembly of the Virgin Islands looks forward to meaningful discussions and strengthening its commitment to parliamentary excellence and regional cooperation through this important event.
